UMC's McCluskey interviewed at ASHS Conference

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Wednesday, July 13, 2005

Horticulture instructor at the University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC), Melinda McVey McCluskey, PhD will be attending the American Society for Horticultural Science (ASHS) annual conference to be held July 18 – 21 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

McCluskey was selected to interview about her poster "A Lab Exercise to Enhance Student's Understanding of Botany in Everyday Life using Fresh Produce" during the conference. A video archive of the session will become part of the ASHS HortEducator Resources website for ASHS members. McVey has been a member of UMC's faculty since 2002. Visit UMC's website for more information.
